IDONAS HUGHES JR. FROM CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, MONTEREY BAY NAMED TO ALPHA LAMBDA DELTA'S NATIONAL COUNCIL

FAIRPORT, New York – The National Council of Alpha Lambda Delta is pleased to announce that Idonas Hughes Jr. from California State University, Monterey Bay has been appointed for a three-year term as Professional Member-at-Large.

Hughes is the Student Conduct Administrator at California State University, Monterey Bay. He earned a Bachelors in Counseling Psychology at the University of Maryland College Park, and Masters in College Student Personnel Administration from Michigan State University. Not only has Hughes been the advisor for Alpha Lambda Delta at three chapters across the country, he has founded two of those chapters. He was the Alpha Lambda Delta chapter advisor at Cazenovia College (NY), and he worked to install a new chapter at Sonoma State University (CA) in 2018 and most recently at California State University, Monterey Bay in 2019.

As a Professional Member-at-Large, Hughes will serve on national scholarship selection committees. He will also serve on the Chapter Relations, Finance and Budget, and Long Range Planning committees this year, looking to utilize his experiences at various colleges and universities to help Alpha Lambda Delta adjust to the changing landscape of higher education. The National Council looks forward to the energy and expertise Hughes brings to the Council.

Alpha Lambda Delta

Alpha Lambda Delta is a national honor society that recognizes students in their first year at a college/university for academic success. Founded in 1924, Alpha Lambda Delta has over a million lifetime members and is present on over 280 campuses nationwide. Alpha Lambda Delta's mission is to "encourage superior academic achievement, to promote intelligent living and a continued high standard of learning, and to assist students in recognizing and developing meaningful goals for their unique roles in society."
