

What is Alpha Lambda Delta?

The Honor Society for First-Year Academic Success

Our History

Founded in 1924 at the University of Illinois, Alpha Lambda Delta has recognized academic excellence of first-year students for over 95 years. Today, there are more than 280 ALD chapters with more than 1.2 million students initiated.

Dues

In order to become a lifetime ALD member, there is a one-time due payment of $30. You will be an ALD member for life regardless of your level of involvement or if your GPA changes. Chapters usually charge local dues to support campus programs.

Scholarships

When you become an ALD member, you have access to scholarships that help ease the cost of education. ALD offers over $211,000 in scholarships to help fund undergraduate education, study abroad experiences, and graduate study.

Why Join?

- Build your resume and prepare yourself for greatness outside of your institution
- Join a community of students committed to academic excellence
- Give back to your community through volunteer events
- Expand your leadership skills at your own pace
- Become a better communicator
- Get more involved on your own campus and meet new people
- Access to exclusive ALD scholarships
- Eligible for ALD Perks Program, which provides more than 300,000 perks and discounts nationwide
- Lifetime membership
- Access to helpful resources such as webinars and leadership summits

“Through ALD, I found a highly motivated special group of young people who encouraged each other to excel academically, support each other, and to give back to their community. The friendships I made through ALD continue to be some of the closest and most meaningful of my life.”

- Shejuti Paul, University of Alabama at Birmingham

For more information about the benefits of joining ALD, scan the QR code.

@nationalald

@nationalald

Alpha Lambda Delta Academic Honor Society

