

ALD
Inside
and
Out

Introduction to Converse's Alpha Lambda Delta

What does independent volunteering include?

- Volunteering with other events on campus and in the community in addition to ALD volunteer projects
- Pursuing areas of passion, whether it be sports, education, or something entirely unique
- Interacting with local organizations to find opportunities for students
- Making the independent volunteering process less intimidating for members
- Creating a lifelong love for volunteering by helping students find organizations they love

Why encourage independent volunteering?

- There are tons of nonprofit organizations in the Spartanburg area
- Volunteering independently helps athletes & commuter students get more involved in ALD
- Helps increase involvement with other campus organizations
- This creates lifelong volunteers
- Amazing results!

How to Encourage Independent Volunteering

- Take time during meetings to announce volunteer opportunities.
- Celebrate students that go above and beyond with their volunteering through student shoutouts.
- Include resources to local volunteer opportunities on your chapter page such as website links, virtual flyers and event announcements.
- Reach out to local organizations and ask if there are any areas of need.
- Create Volunteering Guides for local opportunities.
